LDI HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

In accordance with federal law, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services' pharmacies; LDI Pharmacy and LDI Specialty Pharmacy (collectively, "LDI") are required to maintain the privacy of Protected Health Information ("PHI") and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. PHI is information that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services. This Notice of Privacy Practices ("Notice") describes how we may use and disclose PHI to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations and for other specified purposes that are permitted or required by law. The Notice also describes your rights with respect to your PHI.

LDI is required to follow the terms of this Notice. We will not use or disclose PHI about you without your written authorization, except as described in this Notice. We are required to notify affected individuals following a breach of unsecured PHI. We reserve the right to change our practices and this Notice, and to make the new Notice effective for all PHI we maintain. Upon request, we will provide any revised Notice to you and we will update this Notice on our website.

Your Health Information Rights - You have the following rights with respect to PHI about you:

Obtain a paper copy of the Notice upon request. You have the right to receive a paper copy of the Notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive the Notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy. To obtain a paper copy, contact Privacy Officer, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services, 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141.

Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of PHI. You may request additional restrictions on our use and disclosures of your PHI. Although we will review your request, please be aware that we are under no obligation to accept it or to abide by it unless the request concerns a disclosure of PHI to a health plan for purposes of carrying out payment or health care operations, and the PHI pertains solely to a health care service for which the provider has been paid out of pocket by you in full. To request such restrictions, contact Privacy Officer, c 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141.

Inspect and obtain a copy of PHI. In most cases you have the right to access and copy PHI about you for as long as LDI maintains the PHI. To inspect or copy PHI about you, you must send a written request to Privacy Officer, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services, 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141. We may charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing and supplies that are necessary to fulfill your request. If the PHI requested is maintained electronically and you request an electronic copy of such information, we will provide the PHI in an electronic form to you or to a third party that you identify. We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain limited circumstances, such as if access is restricted for clear and documented treatment reasons. If you are denied access to PHI about you, you may request that the denial be reviewed.

Request an amendment of PHI. If you feel that PHI we maintain about you is incomplete or incorrect, you may request that we amend it. To request an amendment, you must send a written request, which includes a reason supporting the request, to Privacy Officer, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services, 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141. We may deny the request to amend.

Receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI. You have the right to receive an accounting of the disclosures we have made of PHI about you after April 14, 2003 for most purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations. The right to receive an accounting is subject to certain exceptions, restrictions, and limitations. To request an accounting, you must submit a request in writing to Privacy Officer, LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services, 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141. Your request must specify the time period, but may not be longer than six years. The first accounting you request within a 12-month period will be provided free of charge, but you may be charged for the cost of providing additional accountings.

Request communications of PHI by alternative means or at alternative locations. You have the right to request that we communicate with you in an alternate way to protect the confidentiality of your PHI. For instance, you may request that we contact you about medical matters only in writing or at a different residence or post office box. To request confidential communication of PHI about you, you must submit a request in writing to Privacy Officer, LDI I 701 Emerson Road, Suite 301, Creve Coeur, MO 63141.

How We may Use and Disclose PHI for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

For Treatment. We may use and disclose your PHI to healthcare professionals or other third parties to provide, coordinate and manage the delivery of health care. For example, one of our pharmacists may disclose PHI about you to your doctor in order to coordinate the prescribing and delivery of your medications. We may also provide you with refill reminders, therapeutic substitutions, counseling or other information relevant to your care. We may use or disclose information about you for certain compliance programs such as drug utilization review (DUR).

To Obtain or Provide Payment. If LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services is not your pharmacy benefit manager, the LDI Pharmacy will contact your insurer or pharmacy benefit manager to determine whether it will pay for your prescription, the amount of your co-payment. We will collect from you or will bill a third-party payer the cost of prescription medications dispensed to you. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as the prescriptions you are taking. If LDI Integrated Pharmacy Services is your pharmacy benefit manager we will bill your employer, union, or third party payer for the cost of prescriptions medications dispensed to you. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as the prescriptions you are taking.

To Conduct Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose your PHI to carry out our own business planning and administrative operations. For example, we may use your PHI to review the quality of care and services you receive; to provide you case management or care coordination services. This information will be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care and service we provide. We may also contact you to provide information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services. For example, we may notify you that a medication has been recalled or that a generic drug is now available for the brand drug you are using. We may share limited health information with your employer or other organization that helps pay for your membership in the plan or to permit the plan sponsor to perform plan administrative functions. Plan sponsors that receive this information are required by law to have safeguards in place to protect it from inappropriate uses.

How We May Use or Disclose PHI For Refill Reminders or Treatment Alternatives

We may use and disclose PHI about you to provide refill reminders. We may also use and disclose PHI about you to advise you or recommend possible service options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Disclosures You May Authorize Us to Make

We will not use or disclose PHI about you without authorization, except as described in this Notice or as required by law. Subject to certain limited exceptions, we may not use or disclose PHI for marketing without your authorization. We may not sell PHI without your authorization. You may give us written authorization to use and/or disclose health information to anyone for any purpose. If you authorize us to use or disclose such information, you may revoke that authorization in writing at any time.

Other Specific Uses or Disclosures of Your PHI

Business associates: There are some services we provide through contracts with business associates. When these services are performed, we may disclose PHI about you to our business associate so that they can perform the job we have contracted them to perform. To protect PHI about you, we require each of our business associates to enter into a business associate agreement whereby they agree to appropriately safeguard the PHI.

Communication with individuals involved in your care or payment for your care: We may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend or any person you identify, PHI relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): LDI may disclose to the FDA, or persons under the jurisdiction of the FDA, PHI relative to adverse events with respect to drugs, foods, supplements, products and product defects, or post-marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement or for the FDA's Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategies Program (REMS).

Worker's compensation: LDI may disclose PHI about you as authorized by and as necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or similar programs established by law.

Public health: As required by law, LDI may disclose PHI about you to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability.

Law enforcement: LDI may disclose PHI about you for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena, warrant, summons or other legal process, or to report a crime.

As required by law: LDI must disclose PHI about you when required to do so by law.

Health Oversight activities: We may disclose PHI about you to an oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include audits, investigations, and inspections, as necessary for our licensure and for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Judicial and administrative proceedings: If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose PHI about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose PHI about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the requested PHI.

Research: We may disclose PHI about you to researchers under specific limited circumstances, such as when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your information. There may also be circumstances where we remove information that personally identifies you and use the PHI to create aggregate data (which is summarized data that does not identify individuals) to study outcomes, the cost of care or future benefit designs that we may suggest to your health plan.

Coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors: We may release PHI about you to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or to determine the cause of death. We may also disclose PHI to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to enable them to carry out their duties.

Organ or tissue procurement organizations: Consistent with applicable law, we may disclose PHI about you to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.

Notification: We may use or disclose PHI about you to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, of your location and general condition.

Correctional institution: If you are or become an inmate of a correctional institution, we may disclose PHI to the institution or its agents when necessary for your health or the health and safety of others.

To avert a serious threat to health or safety: We may use and disclose PHI about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.

Military and veterans: If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release PHI about you as required by military command authorities. We may also release PHI about foreign military personnel to the appropriate military authority.

National security and intelligence activities: We may release PHI about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities authorized by law.

Protective services for the President and others: We may disclose PHI about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or conduct special investigations, intelligence or counter-intelligence services.

Victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence: We may disclose PHI about you to a government authority, such as a social service or protective services agency, if we reasonably believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. We will disclose this type of information only to the extent required by law, if you agree to the disclosure, or if the disclosure is allowed by law and we believe it is necessary to prevent serious harm to you or someone else or the law enforcement or public official that is to receive the report represents that it is necessary and will not be used against you.
